

Helsinki-Hotelomge
ving.xps

Robbert Droop

Robbert.droop@minienm.nl

Netherlands, born on 5 October 1954

Occupational field

Environmental policies, eco-innovation, circular economy, waste management

Career

Employed by the Ministry of Infrastructure and the Environment, Netherlands

- Policy coordinator Circular Economy in Europe (current position)
- NL expert for Council Conclusions during NL Presidency term 2016
- Horizon2020 programme committee for Societal Challenge 5 - Head-of-delegation - Environment, circular economy, climate action, raw materials (current)
- OECD Working Party on Resources Productivity and Wastes delegate (current)
- Management team FP7-project Eco-Innova (2010-2014)
- International Environmental Affairs directorate (1988-1997)
- European Commission national expert (1986-1987)

Employed by the United Nations Environment Programme, Nairobi, Kenya

- Senior Programme Officer UNEP GPA-office (1998-2001)

Robbert Droop has addressed international conferences in the field of sustainability, innovation, waste management and circular economy at many occasions, including at ERSCP-2014.